If you are excited about helping to build the city of tomorrow—and you share our values of integrity, service, teamwork, innovation and community—join us, today.

STRATEGIC PLANNING ANALYST – FIRE SERVICE

Reporting directly to the Fire Chief, and as an integral member of the Fire Services leadership team, your primary responsibilities are to conduct research, analyze statistics, make recommendations and draft reports for review by Surrey Fire Management, City Management, City Council and others, with the goal on enhancing fire safety in the City of Surrey. You will identify and analyze emerging fire safety issues and their implications, and help the Fire Service in establishing value-adding metrics.

You will have the additional challenge of collecting, computerizing, mapping and disseminating fire statistics for the purposes of operations, education, training, communication and fire prevention. Your statistical reports will be insightful and timely, and you may be required to present your conclusions in a variety of forums. Your work will make a difference in building safer communities within the City, the region and more broadly.

If you have a graduate degree in economics or mathematics with an undergraduate degree in business and 5-7 years of relevant experience, this may be the role for you. The successful candidate, will have achieved a strong academic standing, in addition to having a demonstrated ability to work in a team based, fast paced, service focused work environment. You must have excellent communication skills (written and oral) and the ability to work well with complex stakeholders.

The challenges you will face are many, but the rewards are great as you join a team committed to serving the community with integrity and innovation.
